Red Mountain Hiking

Bobbie Johnson

Bobbie came to the Western Slope of Colorado in 1967 to teach Physical Education at Montrose Junior High. She has lived in Montrose, Ridgway and Ouray, and explored the San Juans and other mountain ranges in Colorado for all these years. Bobbie is an avid hiker and mountain biker as well as a snowshoer, watercolorist and quilter. During winter months you will find her hiking and biking the deserts of AZ.

Mark Johnson

Mark was born to earth in Springfield, Ohio from Hilda Mable Johnson and Everett Milo Johnson...two souls stricken with a serious affliction known as wanderlust. As a 9-month-old infant Mark's Mom and Dad sold their modest country bungalow with a flowing creek in the back yard, packed all but bare necessities and three sibling children into a 1949 Ford convertible, and moved lock, stock and barrel to Phoenix, Arizona where he was schooled and raised. Mark inherited his parent's wanderlust gene and moved to his dream location of western Colorado in 1976. Having found Heaven On Earth, he never left. Today Mark is retired and lives with his Wife, Bobbie, in lovely Ouray...the Capitol of Heaven On Earth. Mark now serves his passions and time by enjoying explorative hikes, mountain biking and spending winters in Arizona, where the weather more suits his
