

JULY 30

EDWARD BOVY “PIONEER DOCTORS OF OURAY”

Edward Bovy is now enjoying retirement in Ouray County, a place he has been visiting regularly since 1970. During his career, he worked for the National Park Service, US Forest Service, and the Bureau of Land Management. He also started his own publishing company while living in Alaska and designed, published and marketed numerous books, calendars, and other publications. Today he occasionally takes on freelance graphic design projects and was a designer and contributor to OCHS's latest book, Ouray's Historic Hospital.

Photo: Ed Bovy taking the part of Dr. E. H. Fish during the August 2023 book signing of the Ouray County Historical Society's new publication -- Ouray's Historic Hospital.

Join us in discovering the backgrounds, quirks and accomplishments of the dedicated physicians who came to Ouray during the silver boom years and beyond to treat the sick and injured living at the edge of civilization.